

Carillon Beach Weddings recommended acts

Danny Sommers, DJ. His attention to detail, preparation, presentation and focus on entertainment puts him in a class by himself. Every Gulf Coast DJ, when honest, wishes he could garner the praise and referrals that Danny gets. To say your event will be memorable is a huge understatement. If you realize that the entertainment makes the party, and that there can be a big difference in performers, then sign him up.... quickly. $1750

Real Deal will impress you with original choreography, and the latest and greatest top 40 dance beats. You'll also hear a repertoire of Supremes, Aretha, Tina, Elvis, Whitney, Temptations, Otis Redding, Four Tops and many, many more. Same members over 10 years makes the show and presentation very tight and fun! $2500.

Fun Fun Fun! The Grand Band formed to handle events at the Grand Hotel in Point Clear, but soon found themselves performing in 6 states! Everyone sings and most play 4 instruments...And they make you the star of the show with their audience participation and interaction. From business parties to galas, this is who to book. Horns included always- This is a premium act. $3000

Every once in a while, one band stands out from the pack, here it is: Cool Rayz has the essential elements of a top band-musical excellence and show experience. Four very talented guys, all who sing, and a hot female vocalist. This makes a great presentation with tight harmonies backed by a great dance beat. Lots of variety, this group can satisfy any audience- $3500

One of the hottest acts in the Southeast, Grand Revue will make you party 'till you drop. You'll really appreciate this group- Lots of energy, choreography, male and female vocalists. Eight people on stage with a kickin' horn section. $3750

If you like big band, swing, and Motown , Mister Big can do it all. From Glenn Miller to “Love Shack”, your crowd will be on the floor dancing all night. They can back it down a notch for dinner, then crank it up for the party. $4000

The Classics: In addition to being excellent musicians and singers, this group know how to entertain. With dazzling appearance, elegant attire and audience participation, The Classics are the perfect choice for your event needs. They’ve opened for Kool & the Gang, Aaron Neville, The Temptations, James Brown, Michael McDonald, and many others. This is a top class act! $4000

For 80's music, this is the act to have. If you've heard the same old R&B, Beach, or Classic Rock bands and are ready for something really fun and different, Kung Pow! is it! This group combines experience, showmanship, versatility, and variety, making them one of the Southeast's most popular bands. Kung Pow! is non-stop fun featuring songs from No Doubt, Pink, Bon Jovi, Cindi Lauper, Def Leppard, Madonna, The Divinyls, Prince, Blondie, Gun's 'N Roses, and many, many more. Very Very professional presentation, from Nashville, $4250

World famous for recording “I’m A Girl Watcher” the O’Kaysions are a fabulously entertaining group. They play all the party and dance tunes along with Carolina beach music at its best. Killer horns, female and male vocalists add punch and pizzaz to the band. $4500

