Since this agency began, it has been responsible for over 10,000 event bookings in at least 99 cities of 9 states. We have been involved in the grand openings of almost every major business in the Gulf Coast area, and are booking some conventions and associations for 25 + years. We've sent acts to many colleges and universities on the Gulf Coast in the Southeast. In addition, over 3,000 weddings have been handled. We have the experience and competence to do it right, and are polite and respectful to all our customers. Our phone is answered by an agent instead of a machine-and we check our email. Why would you trust your very important event to anyone else?

Top 10 Reasons to Use Grand Entertainment Agency

1. The Acts will always be ready to start on time
2. All acts are self contained, know how move in and setup quickly
3. We don't recommend "throw together" acts that practice at your expense
4. Our agents will think of the important details to ask you
5. We send the right act for your event-not just something to make us money
6. The acts we offer really care about pleasing their crowds
7. We guarantee all the acts we recommend
8. We are competent, professional, and easy to work with
9. We make you look good for having recommended us
10. You and your guests will enjoy your event more

The Grand Band Agency is owned and operated by entertainers, not just salespeople. You will be dealing directly with an experienced staff of professional entertainers who know how to place the RIGHT entertainment, for all the RIGHT reasons. Additionally, we will help you cover the details that a sales oriented booking agent would miss. We've been there!

The Grand Band & Agency is locally owned and operated, duly licensed, and a member of many professional business organizations. We are here to stay and to assist you through each phase of planning, whether it be for a major multi-day production, a hospitality suite, brunch, wedding or reception, Mardi Gras event, college or school function, reunion, fund raising gala, or anything in between. Our customers recommend us to others and you'll love working with us.
